Dear Benedict Barakaeli Nsale,

RE: LETTER OF APPOINTMENT

Please refer to the above mentioned subject matter.

The TANZANIA POSTS CORPORATION hereby offers you an appointment as ICT OFFICER II (Security) on the terms and conditions as set below.

Your appointment will be effective from 3rd August, 2026 and appointment is subject to a receipt of satisfactory reports from your last employer/school/college and two referees. Your appointment should be administered and read together with the Terms and Conditions of Employment as stipulated in Tanzania Posts Corporation Staff Rules and Regulations, Scheme of Service and the Employment and Labour Laws of the Country which collectively will be considered in your contract of employment.

1. Probationary Period

For the first twelve (12) months of your employment you will be on probation and during this period your performance shall be monitored and assessed. At the end of the probationary period you will be notified in writing whether you are confirmed in the position of ICT OFFICER II (Security) or not and the reasons therefore will be given.

a. Introduction

a. Taxation

You will be required to pay taxes as per the relevant Tanzanian tax legislation. The Corporation will deduct this from your monthly earnings.

b. Pension Funds

The Corporation will deduct 5% of your total salary (monthly fixed rate plus allowances & bonuses) to be paid to the Pension Funds, whichever you are a member of, for the purpose of providing you with a pension on retirement.

In addition to your contribution the Corporation will pay an equivalent 15% contribution to your fund based on your Basic salary.

10. Occupational Medical Examination

You will be required to pass a pre-employment occupation medical examination prior to being employed. If deemed necessary, you may also be required to attend periodic occupational medical examinations to ascertain whether that you are medically fit for the job you are performing.

The costs for the pre-employment occupation medical examinations will be covered by the staff themselves.

11. Notice period

In the event of your resignation, you will be required to give the Corporation notice of your intention at least 28 days prior to your intended last day of work.

If you refuse or fail to work your notice period the Corporation reserves the right to deduct, from any money due to you on termination, the amount that would have been due to you had you worked the notice period.

12. Termination of employment

- a. The Corporation may terminate your employment as stipulated in the Staff Rules and Regulations for serious misconduct.

The Corporation reserves the right at any time (during probation or after) to terminate your employment once proven during the scrutiny or vetting process that the documents submitted are fraudulent, fake, or belongs or shared to somebody else.

- b. During the probationary period, your employment may be terminated by either party giving one month's notice in writing or twenty-four hours' notice with one month's basic salary in lieu of notice.

- c. Your appointment will be in accordance with the terms and conditions of service as contained in the Corporation's Staff Rules and Regulations as supplemented by circular directives and as they may be amended from time to time.

- d. No severance pay will be paid in the case of resignation or termination with cause.
- e. You must abide by the policies and procedures of the Corporation, as updated or issued from time to time, and by any directions given to you by the Corporation during the course of your employment.

13. Terms and Conditions of Employment

This employment contract will be governed by the Corporation's Terms and Conditions of Employment (TCE) clearly stated in the Staff Rules and Regulations and scheme of service of the Corporation.
